

Swine Service

The swine clinic is involved with the supervision of health care of the University of Guelph–OMAFRA swine research stations and maintains close links with a group of local commercial pork operations for teaching and research purposes. There are two faculty members and a part-time staff veterinarian and several graduate students in this service.

Senior Service Team Members

Catherine E. Dewey | Robert M. Friendship | Anne Deckert